Our PENN ALMA

Foreword . . .

We have endeavored, in this yearbook, to represent the program of a play.

We have the faculty as our "Directors", the seniors as the "Cast", the underclassmen are the "Understudies", and our clubs and activities are called "Off-Stage". That left us with sports and advertisements. We were stumped, and so you'll find "Sports" and "Advertisements" in a pure state, the last thing in our book.

We hope you enjoy our production, and that in future years, as you leaf through its pages, you will recall happy memories of 1950.

Dedication . .

The Penn Alma is dedicated to David Zimmerman by the class of 1950, for his wonderful work with us and for his sincere interest in us and our activities.

To the Class of '50

The demand for leaders is always great: but there has never been a time when they were needed so much in religion, government, and business as they are today. Earnestly strive to become a leader in your community, state and nation.

Congratulations to the class of 1950.

Our Memory Book

After our Greenie and Half-baked years in the seventh and eighth grades, came the dawn of a bright new future for us as Freshmen.

Basketball came to mean so much more to us . . . (we even remembered what the score was when we went home.) We sat far into the night completing our Pennsylvania History notebooks and were losing our fresh bloom of youth worrying about Latin and Algebra. We all went on a bowling spree that winter. Frosh bowling was really something to behold! We were the biggest and best in the Junior High; our parties were gay and our hopes for the years to come were shining.

We really began to live as Sophomores. SENIOR HIGH . . . absolute magic! Our wonderful seats in assembly were ever a source of joy! We were in Service Club, Cheerleading, Basketball, Y-Teens . . . all things were possible.

Our Soph Hop was our greatest occasion of the year 1948. We carried out a new idea, inviting Exeter and Pennside to join us for this gala affair. Those friends we made then seem so much a part of Mount Penn now, it's hard to believe they ever bade sad farewells to a previous Alma Mater.

Our Raindrop programs and umbrella decorations carried out an April Showers theme, and we all became experts at making crepe paper flowers. After an afternoon of hard work, everyone agreed that the time had been well spent and that the results were simply wonderful.

Our Junior and Senior years have been the years of golden memories to be cherished forever. In 1949, we realized the proximity of 1950 and we rather reluctantly accepted the mantle of Seniors.

As Juniors we were the J. V. Squad . . . CHAMPS; cheerleaders, key band members; always at the athletic field . . . in fall for soccer, . . . in spring for track.

The Junior play "China Boy", shaved at least seven years off the lives of its cast members, who were in the throes of stage fright weeks in advance of opening night, but it couldn't have been better (or funnier!).

The Junior Prom was beautiful and gay with jolly little circus animals hanging on the walls and a whirl of pastel crepe streamers hung from the very top of the ceiling to make our Carousel. We went to commencement and saw even closer our own departure from Mount Penn High, but were not too saddened to enjoy a glorious summer vacation.

1950—Seniors—a Varsity squad of near champions with a heartbreaking defeat at the end of the season. Along with all the crazy fun we could cook up, were our serious problems of college application and the search for jobs.

The Senior play, "Seventeenth Summer" brought the poignant realization of teenage problems to its audience and was soundly acclaimed one of Mt. Penn's best productions.

Can we describe the twist it gave our hearts to see our last basketball game as students and march for the last time in orange and black? Nor can we do justice to the happy-go-lucky days with a "picture exchange" going on from morning till night: our dancing to dreamy music at our mid-winter prom and at last our banquet and dance at the Country Club. Now there are only days left before we too, misty-eyed and in caps and gowns, shall receive our diplomas and become members of the alumni.

Around the Clock in Mt. Penn High School

110 seniors shut off their alarm clocks and go back to sleep.

7:20

110 seniors are unceremoniously awakened once more and sleepily begin preparation for another day at dear M. P. H. S.

7:45

109 seniors have breakfast (Alice Najarian is on a diet).

8:00

Last minute study, radio, morning paper—egad! Look at Dick Tracy!

8:20

Sensible seniors leave for school.

8:32

What's this sudden gust of wind? Just Pat Brossman and Nancy Schneider dashing down Filbert Avenue toward the front door; Jackie and Renee dashing up Filbert; Bette and Kathy doing a 50-yd. dash from the north corner of 25th street; and there comes Nancy Phillips approaching on the south end of 25th street. It happens every day! Just in time to greet the late bell.

1st period—You can tell more or less who has what by the expression on his face. Here comes Dolores Priebe, Dolores Sowa, and Joan Hartline trying to look wide awake and energetic for gym class. Bertha and Bob—oh well, they always look happy. There goes Tom McGlinn looking very grim—must be chemistry. Joyce Babb and Mary Himmelberger look a little frantic—shorthand! Among the mad rush of students dashing to get a good typewriter we spot Cecelia, Floyd, Delbert, and that typing whiz, Mary Jo Roberts. It never fails—that fresh air fiend "Red" Robertson throws open a window which is promptly closed by Judy Kase.

Bell rings for 2nd period—Here come Paul Eisenhower. Gene Line, and Don Hafer of the boys sextette fame happily tuning up their vocal cords. Berna and Carol are deep in conversation. Berna giggles as only Berna can. Dick Matz—for shame! Not down the up stairway. Doris Johnson, Louise Moyer, and Marian Eck are laughing—they must have a study hall.

10:20

3rd period—Bob Landry, Dick Gechter, and Dan Diefenderfer are headed for art Class—Danny, those cemetery scenes are really scrumptuous! Emil Shultz and Bing Bright, leisurely strolling after them, are ready to create their usual masterpieces. Sandy McComas (our Alma cover creator) is also going in the direction of the art room, sketch pad in hand. Boom! What's dat? Those physic brains, Duane and Nick blowing up the boiler.

11:15

4th period—"What do you want for lunch?" Nancy Rhoads can be heard shouting to the gang who eats at Eck's. Here come some of our future secretaries, Shirley Bricker, Gloria Kohl, Gertie Rhein, and Henrietta Truckermiller hurrying to class. Mrs. Dreisbach is in for it again! Paul Jones has thought of more clever remarks for French class. Ah, that last bell—it has finally rung.

Around the Clock at Mt. Penn High School

To homeroom—to lockers—to lunch. Marilyn and Marvine rush to their locker, but due to the crowded conditions within, have extreme difficulty in locating their coats.

12:15—1:15

The boys, composed of such illustrious personalities as Ray Kleinsmith, Dick Keiser, Arthur Hill, and Bob Leinbach, to mention only a few, gather on the corner for a confab. Dave Ritter putts by in his model "A", closely pursued by Harold Boone. Later "Rockie" Sherman puts in his appearance, announcing his arrival with "ahh ahh" (that sound—you name it). A familiar sight is Jane Biever, Janice Keehn, and the Dautrich twins taking their daily constitutional. Another everyday occurance is the noon-time get-together of the Stony Creek gals. Gracie Herbine and Rose Heim keep things lively and everybody is happy —everybody, in this case, Jane Lewis, Molly Keast, Janice Bowman, Ardell Clay (when she doesn't arrive on a motor scooter), Fay Reich, Geraldine Rissmiller, and Emma Levan. Babs and Fred stroll along in complete oblivion! You'll also see George Mack, Tommy Stults, and Paul Hartline, cameras in hand, looking for victims. Kate Rittenhouse "sits" with Joanne while she collects money in the upper hall for the year book. Surrounded by a group of little admirers we see Babb, Bachman, Hawk, Schlegel, and Englehart clad in their familiar gray and maroon jackets, telling about their many basketball exploits. Hungry?—The girls to help you are Ginny, Janice, Corvita, Gloria Weaver, Shirley Steinmetz, and Louise Hauer. Their lunch bags are never empty! Among the crowd at Eck's we spot "Tex" DeTemple putting a nickel in the juke box. Sitting in a booth are Babette and Ibra chatting and sipping cokes.

Buzz—Amid the rush and clamor of eager (?) students at the portals of M.P.H.S. we hear a voice in the rear—it's Lou Levine announcing "Free beer for sale!"

1:30

Afternoon classes begin—Marilyn Leinbach and Margaret Ludwig, heads close together, seem to be enjoying a private tete-a-tete. Nancy Stump, deeply engrossed in her German book, bumps into Esther Peterson—German is soon forgotten. In the commercial department we find Clarence Hafer, Jim Harcar, and Richard Hassler ably assisting Mr. Carson.

2:15

Ah! that bell for assembly. Marching into the auditorium to the music of our great band, we spy Bob Weller, president, in the clarinet section. Naughty, naughty!—not in the front row boys. And that means you McMullen, Mell, Miller, Monroe, Klink, and Kubovsak! And now—on with the show! Here comes that super-colossal M. C., Sy Youngerman, loaded with jokes. Always a pleasant treat is a song from Miriam Esslinger, accompanied by Ruth Angstadt. Two "little boys" full of tricks, Wess Yeager and Dick Yoder fascinate us with their feats of magic. To complete this enjoyable assembly, Sally Yohn and June Reifsnyder do a dance specialty.

Assembly is over and we file out of the auditorium and to our homerooms. A day at Mt. Penn is completed. For the seniors—12 years are completed.

In Memory

Betty and Shirley are at rest
Within the grave's embrace,
While yet their lovely youth is unfulfilled;
Wherefore, we their classmates willed
That in this place a consecrated memorial

To mark our undying thanks that they have lived.

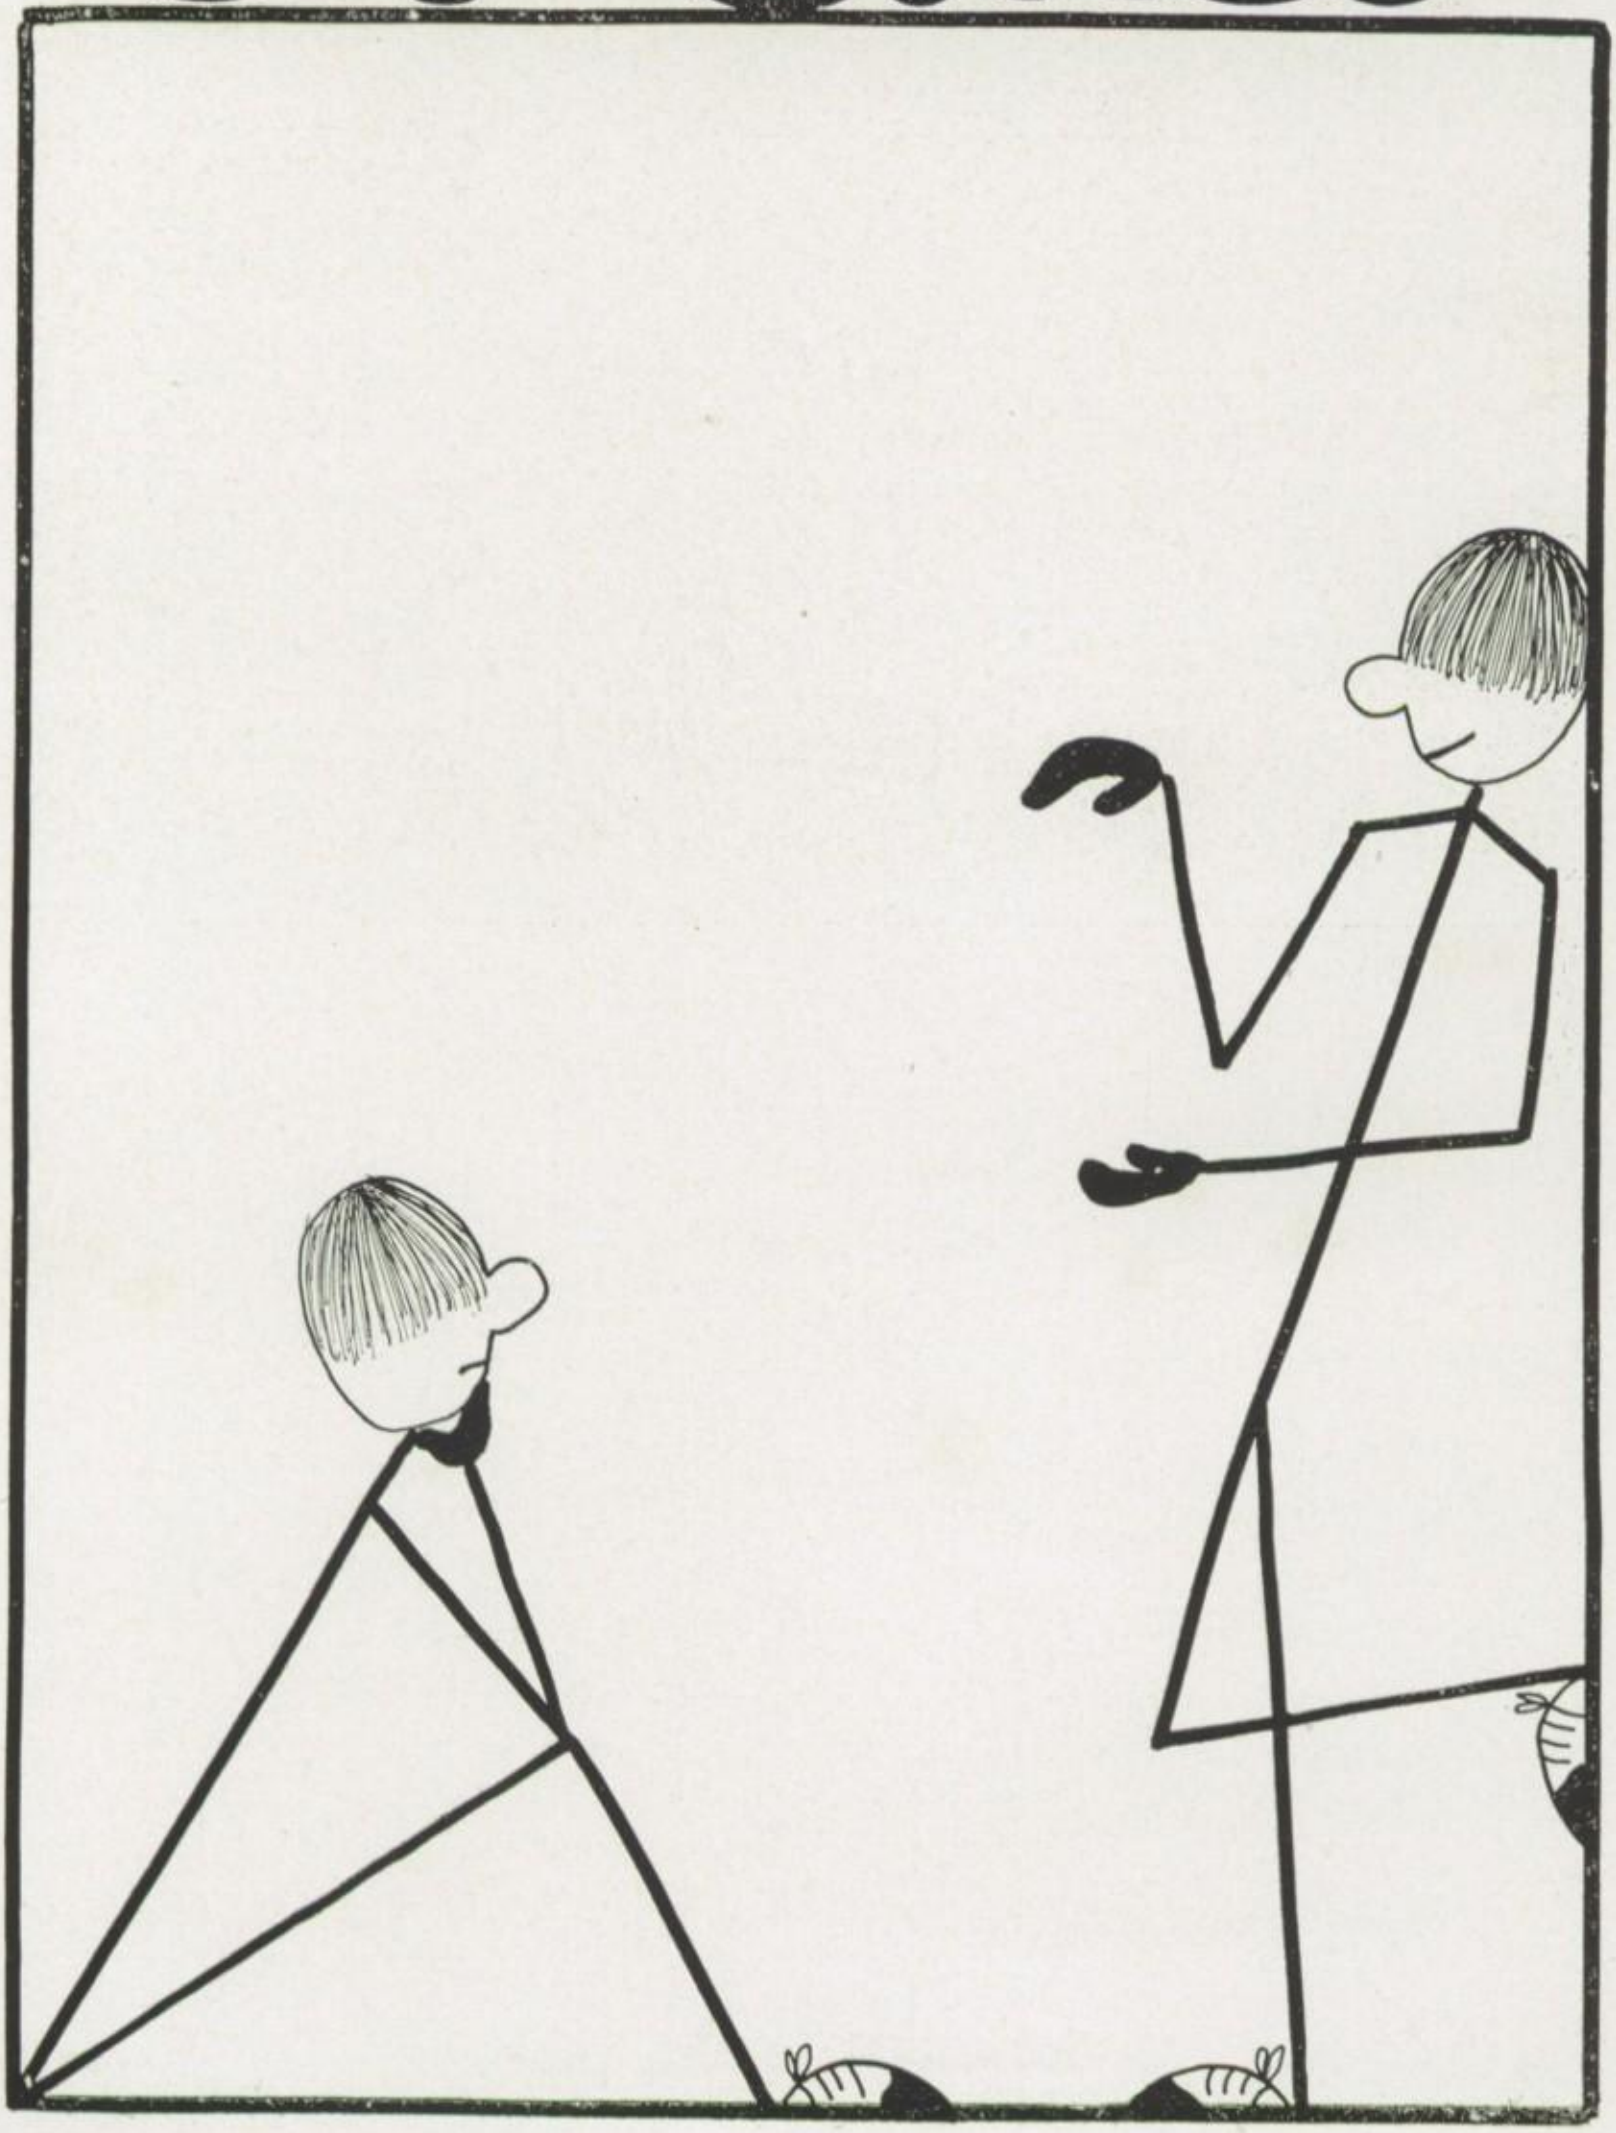
OFF-STOCK



Student Council

First row—Renee Landy, Morton Sherman, Louise Robertson, Donald Yeager, John Esterly, Peggy Nein, Nancy Grube.

Second row—Lee Cohan, Bruce Young, Mary Lou Klink, Claire Yeager, Mr. James, Bruce McLean, Jack Bussard, Sam Heiser, Gretchen Dunkleberger.

"Student Council"—heart of the school. That was the theme of the West Reading conference held early in the school year and Mount Penn readily took up the ideas presented there.

The biggest project this year was the annual C.A.R.E. drive. The clothing collected this year far exceeded our quota of eighteen bags.

This year's officers were: Donald Yeager, President; Morton Sherman, Vice-President; Secretary, Louise Robertson, and Treasurer, John Esterly.

Majorettes and Color Guard

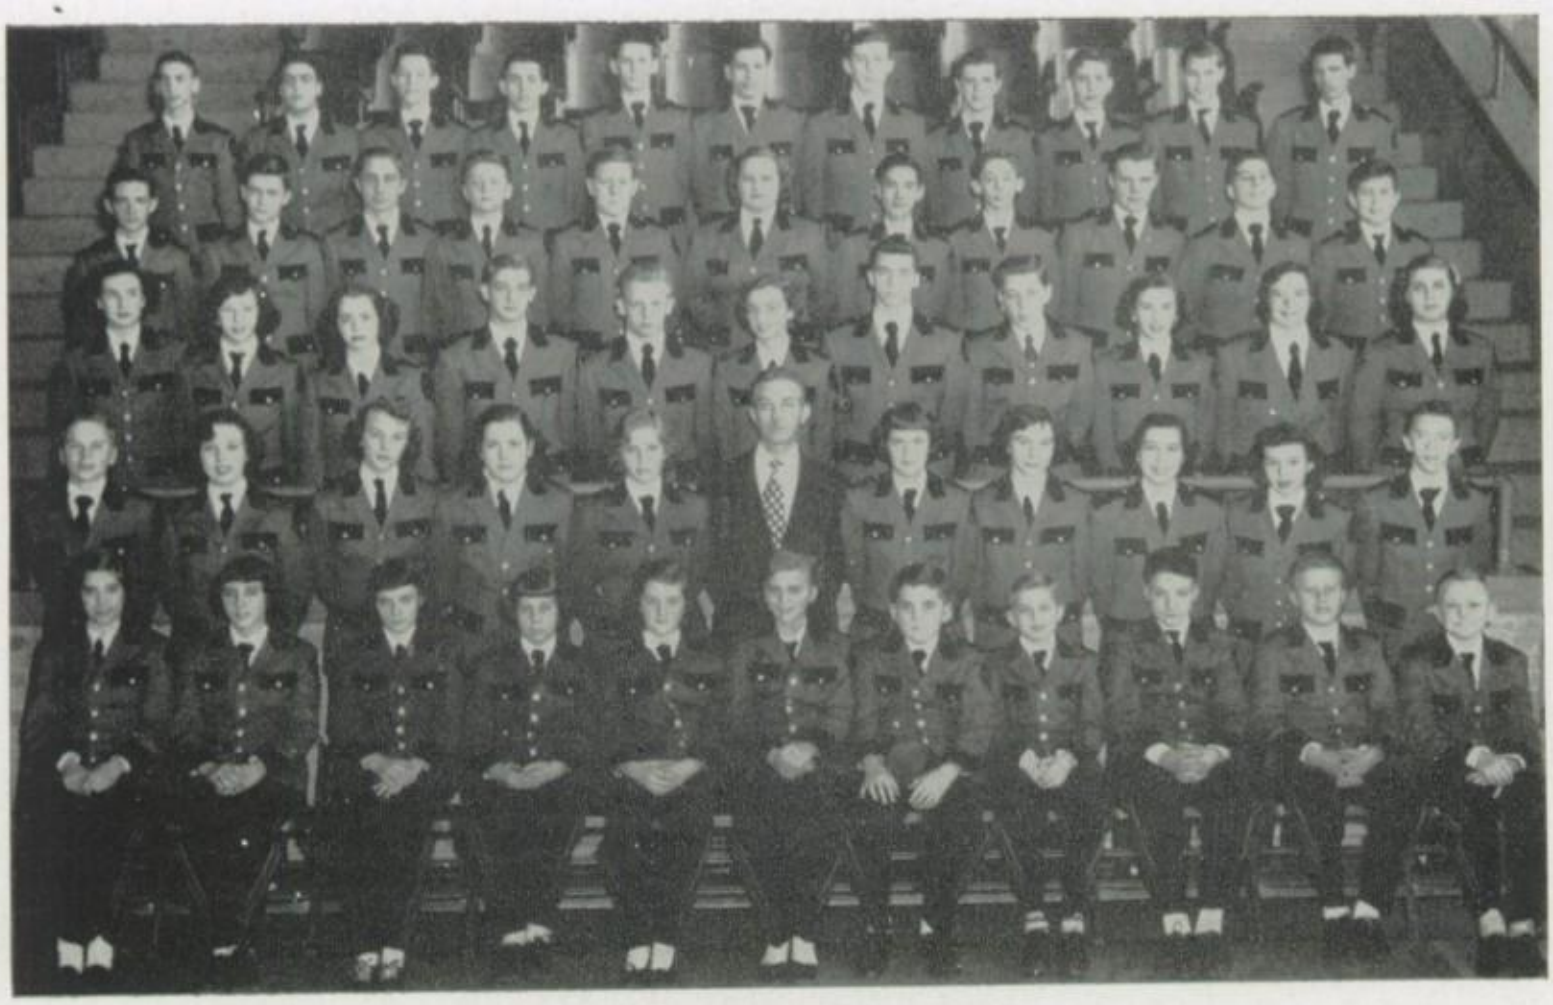
Appearing at every home basketball game, this active group with its colorful uniforms and excellent twirling, added to the attraction of the band's clever formations.

These girls worked hard and diligently in their maneuvers at half-time, and all at Mount Penn should feel proud of them.

Band



First row—Marcia Stump, Mary Ann Nein, Mary Hollingsworth, Sally Freed, Barbara Reitz, Nancy Ruth, Bobby Johnson, Ray Winters, Rothwell Lutz, Sam Heiser, Mark Brumbach.

Second row—Ray Simms, Maria Stupp, Emmy Lou Post, Mary Kropp, Yvonne Thunick, Mr. Levan, Huberta Young, Phyllis Matz, June Homan, Peggy Nein, Ronald Ziegler.

Always one of the outstanding organizations in the school, the band has completed another successful year under the direction of Mr. William Levan.

Their appearance in their snappy new uniforms added much to the spiirt of basketball games, and their drills at half time were looked forward to by all.

As always, the highlight of the season was the spring concert. The band showed us just how hard they worked by playing such difficult selections as Zampa Overture, and American Salute March. Even the members will admit it was worth getting up an hour earlier every Wednesday, if it meant playing such a fine concert.

With the loss of only seven seniors this year, the band can look forward to another successful season next year.

Band officers were: President, Robert Weller; Vice-President, John Kline; Secretary, Louise Hauer; and Treasurer, Winfield Lease.

Dance Band

At piano, Louise Hauer, with her Jackie Kraft, vocalist.

First row—Robert Weller, Martha Roberts, Phyllis Matz, Mary Jo Roberts.

Second row—Paul Feldman, David Shaner, Winfield Lease, Thomas Eshelman, June Homan, John Klein.

Third row—Robert Landry, Ronald Ziegler, Mr. Levan.

Absent from picture, Ruth Angstadt.

An indispensible musical organization is the Dance Band. Without them the dances after basketball games would never have been so gay. We'll never forget that inevitable call—"Whitey Weller"—after every intermission, and the trouble Jackie had with the microphone every time she charmed us with "Temptation".

The band also provided the music for all our new basketball cheer songs.

National Honor Society

Seated—Barbara Evans, Judy Kase, Louise Robertson, Paul Jones, Louise Hauer, Sandy McComas, Nancy Stump.

Standing—Duane Goldman, Ginny Homan, Marilyn Walters, John Esterly, Alice Najarian, Alan Schlegel, Marilyn Leinbach, Jim Babb, Shirley Steinmetz, Mrs. Mack, Corvita Pachuilo, Thomas Stults.

The National Honor Society is composed of members of the junior and senior classes who are chosen by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

These people have met the requirements of the club and so carry out its duties and various activities.

This year the Mount Penn group was host to the clubs of Berks County in the Oriental Fantasy, a dance held in our gymnasium. On the more serious side, the club also helped to elect someone to the hall of fame. Mt. Penn's nomination was Alexander Graham Bell.

OFFICERS OF THE CLUB—President, Joan Christman; Vice-President, John Esterly, Secretary-Treasurer, Marilyn Walters.

Pictured here we have the Penn Post staff of 1949. In January 1950, John Esterly became editor and a new staff was organized eliminating the seniors.

The Post is published every two weeks. The job of getting the paper together is an interesting, (and sometimes hectic) one, carried out by a staff of student members with the assistance of Mr. Miller, faculty advisor.

Here is the outline of the typical cycle of an issue as it is prepared for printing. Monday articles are turned in and Monday evening the editoral staff (comprised of the editor and three associate editors), meets to compile the material on hand and dummy the paper—but a staff meeting is much more than just that! It is a mayhem of journalistic talent in a state of 'efficient confusion'. On Tuesday articles go to the typists, and by Wednesday the paper is rechecked by Mr. Ward. Thursday it goes to the printer to be linotyped. The actual printing of the paper takes place right in the high school building the following Monday morning, and you receive them every other Tuesday. Then this whole cycle starts all over again.

Much could be said about the trials and tribulations of a paper and its publications, but we will end with our best wishes for the future success of the Penn Post in 1950.

Debating Team

First row—Mrs. Mack, Debby Babbitt, Sharon Hughes, Peggy Nein, Barbara Schlegel.

Second row—Larry Coplan, Bruce McLean, Paul Jones, John Esterly, Thomas Stults.

Debating has long been a favorite activity among schools since it brings students together in a pro and con discussion in a democratic manner. The debates are not decided in favor of one side or the other but are carried on informally.

This year's team was a very fine one and a credit to our school. Mrs. Mack may well be proud of the work she has done with them.

If we can teach youth to discuss matters around a table, perhaps we have a better chance for world peace.

Senior Chorus

First row—Margaret Ludwig, Emma Billington, Marilyn Walters, Audrey Wolfinger, Paul Eisenhower, Janice Reifsnyder, Donald Hafer, Peggy Nein, June Homan, Pat Brossman, Ruth Angstadt.

Second row—Joy Ridell, Jackie Kraft, Delores Sowa. Gertrude Rhein, Sally Yohn, Mrs. White, Mary Himmelberger, Nancy Schneider, Nancy Phillips, Betty Lou Hafer.

Third row—Virgina Homan, Mary Jane Lash, Molly Keast, Sylvia McCoy, Geraldine Rissmiller, Nancy Rhoads, Christine Hartman, Phyllis Matz, Gloria Kohl, June Reifsnyder, Corvita Pachuilo.

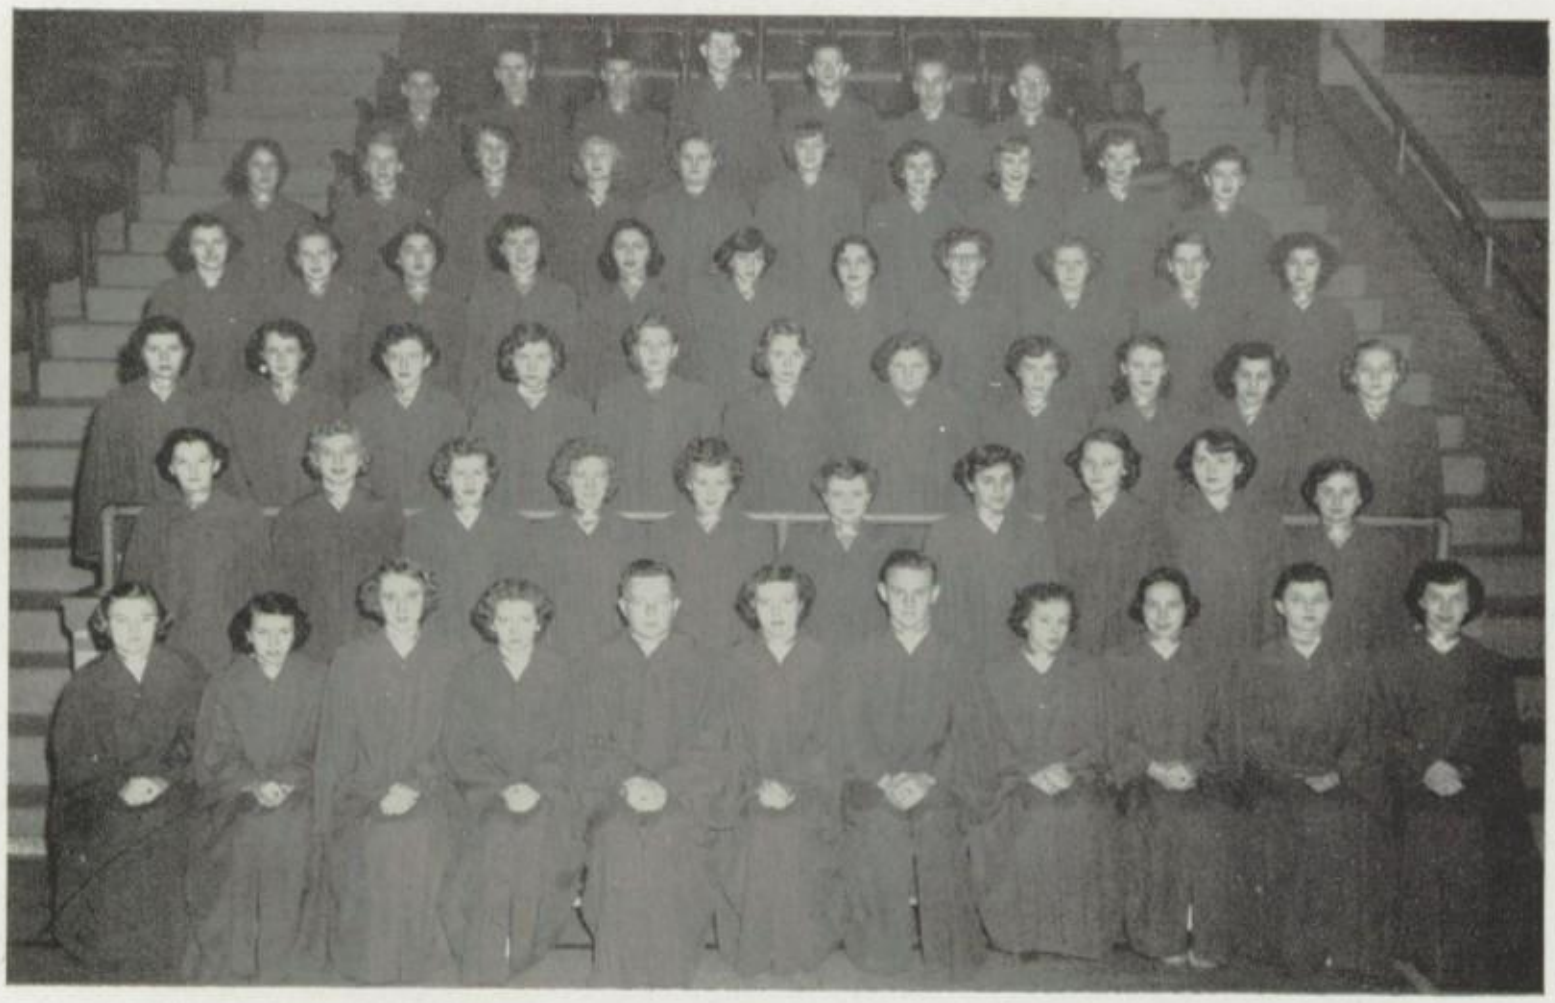
After witnessing their excellent concert this spring, we all agree that the Senior Chorus is again one of which we can be proud. These songsters proved to us that they were not a group to sing one certain type of songs, for their repertoire consisted of anything from the Hallelujah Chorus to Country Style, all rendered with the same quality and perfection usually associated with professional singers.

Naturally all this was brought about only by hours and hours of rehearsals, but Mrs. White injected just the right amount of humor, and the entire chorus reported for every practice very willingly.

Something new was added to the chorus this year in the form of their attractive blue and gold robes. These add just the right note of uniformity, and are to be considered a very wise investment.

We wish to take this opportunity to congratulate this year's chorus for their fine work, and to wish next year's chorus the best of luck, and we hope they have an equally successful year.



Junior and Intermediate Choruses

Second row—Patty Jo Johnston, Shirley Smith, Lois Dershwin, Carol Johnson, Georgia Rote, Mr. Dundore, Sandra Eckman, Patsy Behm, Ann Hoff, Pat Keiffer, Barbara Reitz.

Fourth row—Jackie Ganster, Jeanette Ramsey, Delores Wentzel, Mary Lou Klink, Shirley Griffin, Maria Stupp, Yvonne Thunick, Gayle Sands, Joan Eiffert, Sylvia Krug, Fifth row—Nancy Grube, Jackie Aigeldinger, Joanne Bates, Claire Yeager, Ann Fasic, Ann Sherman, Pat Griffin, Mary Lou Folk, Shirley Zeigler, Fern Shade.

Mount Penn is fortunate enough to have three choruses. The Junior Chorus of seventh and eighth grades and the Intermediate Chorus, of ninth and tenth grades and the Senior Chorus of eleventh and twelfth grades. The Junior Chorus is directed by Mrs. White, while Mr. Dundore instructs the Intermediate group. This is excellent training for the young people who eventually will become members of the Senior Chorus.

Sextette and Octette

Absent from the picture, Gene Line.

The girls' Octette and boys' Sextette have become two widely acclaimed choral groups at Mt. Penn. We have enjoyed their music in many assemblies, and they have entertained several audiences at other engagements. Under the fine direction of Mrs. White, they have new skills in music.

Senior Play

Behind the story of every play there is another story—the story of the people in it—the cast—their trouble, their success and humor in the scenes backstage.

Will Fred and Judy ever forget those tender scenes that were so hard to get just right? No one can say Dick Matz wasn't a versatile man on the set, filling in for everyone who was missing—and his "line" in the play—Dick you were a sensation! There's nothing quite like an exposed prompter to add to a play—Pete gave that curtain quite a tug at rehearsal and there in plain view was a prompter! Of course, there were the usual mixed up entrances and exits and missed cues that had to be ironed out. It's doubtful if anyone would have survived if it hadn't been for refreshments bought at Eck's. Pity the bell ringer—thank goodness the telephone and the door got straightened out before the final performance. And, of course, no one will forget Mrs. Henderson who was always there—patient and competent when everything seemed in the worst kind of jumble.

Thursday found thirteen mighty shaky seniors. Wednesday's rehearsal had gone pretty good but ohhh that opening night still to come! If they were shaky on Thursday, they were nervous wrecks on Friday. The pass word in the dressing rooms—"Oh, am I nervous!" The fellows were just as cute as could be with their complexions in various shades of pink and orange. Ever hear a basketball player say, "Is my makeup all right?" Well you would have backstage on November eighteenth. But as always, no serious mistakes were made, the scenery didn't cave in, no one fainted on stage. The audience didn't get up and walk out—none of the expected tragedies occurred and every one managed to live through that fateful SEVENTEENTH SUMMER.

Junior Play

2nd row—Paul Seidel, Joan Christman, Sally Aicher, Sharon Hughes, John Esterly.

Here is the picture of the cast of this year's junior play "Just Passing By." Can you tell by looking at the picture all the good times the cast had during the seven weeks they prepared the play? Probably not; but if you saw the final performance, you shared some of that fun with them.
be expected, but upon looking back at the efforts, it is not those trifles that are recalled.

Of course the cast had all the little arguments and disappointments that are to More pleasant memories crown past difficulties. We will remember the evening rehearsals because they were the most exciting, and entirely enjoyable. In the darkened school, before an empty auditorium, there was practice, practice, practice!

And we must not forget to mention the people behind the scenes. They are really the unseen heros of any production, who help to preserve sanity in time of stress. The prompters carried out cues and ran errands with an ever willing attitude.

We shall never forget the experience, nor the person who helped us more than we can say. None other than the able director, Mr. Claude A. Dundore.

As a last thought we say . . . if you ever see a member of the cast on the street, go up and say to him, "You'd better watch him Walt . . . he's slippery!" If you come out of that alive, then by all means come see the Senior Play next year.

Key Club

First row—Frederick Klink, Donald Yeager, Sandford Youngerman, Paul Jones, John Esterly, Alan Schlegel, James Babb.

Second row—Mr. Wearne (faculty advisor), Duane Goldman, Thomas Stults, Ray Seiz, Robert Beane, John Klein, Richard Knabb, Peter Hirsh.

Third row—Morton Sherman, Arthur Hill.

Senior Y-Teens

First row—Barbara Evans, Corvita Pachuilo, Ruth Angstadt, Louise Hauer, Virginia Homan, Irene McComas, Louise Robertson, Peggy Nein, Miriam Esslinger, Marilyn Walters.

Second row—Gloria Weaver, Janice Reppert, Phyllis Matz, Vivian Ziegler, Mrs. Driesbach, Audrey Wolfinger, Joan McGrath, Joy Ridell, Barbara Schlegel.

Third row—Janice Reifsnyder, Nancy Phillips, Nancy Schneider, Shirley Steinmetz, Marvine Shaffer, Silvia McCoy, Marjorie Schmoyer, Clair Yeager, Martha Roberts, Ann Sherman.

Fourth row—Lucy Ruppert, Fay Reich, Nancy Stump, Cynthia Rohn, Marlene Ziegler, Mary Jo Roberts, Patsy Stickler, Nancy Rhoads, Bette Townsend.

These girls have always been regarded as one of the most active organizations in the school, and their fine work this year has enabled them to keep that record.

They got off on the right foot in the beginning of the year by staging a membership drive. Remember their little "I am one" badges that had everyone asking questions (which was just what the girls wanted)?

The president, Genny Homan, and her very capable cabinet, consisting of Ruth Angstadt, Miriam Esslinger, Louise Hauer, Alice Najarian, Peggy Nein, Louise Robertson, Sandy McComas, Barbara Evans, and Marilyn Walters, worked hard to present the girls with very interesting meetings. Just a few of these were: a White Elephant Sale, for which every member brought in some unwanted, but useful object and then auctioned it off; Straight A-Head for Fellowship, when every girl had her head measured and and paid one cent to the World Fellowship Fund for every inch around her head; and the annual religious meeting, at which a girl of each of the three faiths spoke briefly on her religion and then answered the questions of the other girls to the best of her ability.

All Y-Teens know the old story about all work and no play, and so to remedy this situation they held a Bubble Dance. This dance combined service with pleasure, for admission that night was one bar of soap to be sent to Europe.

Perhaps the event the senior girls hold closest to their hearts was the Senior Farewell Party held at the end of the year. This was the last activity of the year, and with it they bid a fond farwell to a very happy year as Mount Penn High Y-Teens.

Junior Y-Teens

Service Club

First row—Mr. Dreisbach, Audrey Wolfinger, Shirley Griffin, Paul Jones, Harriet Brown, Marian Eck, Mr. James.

Second row—Vivian Zeigler, Debby Babbitt, Jean Eisman, Nancy Schneider, Joy Ridell, Kathy Angstadt, Nancy Rhoads, Bette Townsend, Pat Brossman.

Third row—Thomas Stults, Marilyn Walters, Pat Bice, Alice Najarian, Judy Kase, Jackie Kraft, Phyllis Cohen, Sally Aicher, John Esterly.

The Service Club of the school does just what its name implies—lends service to the school.

The busiest time of the year for the club, is basketball season, at which time the two committees (refreshment and ticket) work at all home games. Though the two groups are both a part of one united Service Club, they work separately within themselves. Mr. Dreisbach sponsors refreshments and their sale, while Mr. James takes charge of a ticket committee whose members sell tickets at the door and act as host.

Money made by the club is put in the school's fund.

Library Club

First row—Vivian Zeigler, Joan Christman, Audrey Wolfinger, Mrs. Mack (faculty advisor), Marilyn Walters, Helen Chilton, Sharon Huges, Joanne Bates.

Second row—Marcia Stump, Yvonne Thunich, Debby Babbitt, Phyllis Cohan, Phyllis Horning, Sally Sustello, Janice Focht, Delores Wentzel, Gayle Sands.

Once again this year the Senior and Junior Library Clubs were combined and were directed by Mrs. Mack. Their work in the library kept it the pleasant place in the building it is. The bulletin boards have been interesting this year and the books have been efficiently kept, giving us a library to be proud of, and one where we could work at our best.

Camera Club

First row—Thomas Stults, Mr. Sharidan, George Mack.

Second row—Paul Seidel, John Esterly, Lary Coplan.

"What a shot!"—"Hold that pose,"—"That one's a flash job"—"What size film?"—"What time exposure?"—That's the Camera Club talking. They're just daffy for a photo, and it's really what we call a great hobby; so, most naturally, Mount Penn has a club for camera fanciers. The results are lasting proof of the skill they have acquired.

You'll see these boys around school with cameras and flash bulbs in hand, tracking down a good shot. Some of their efforts appear in this book, so you may judge for yourselves. We'd say pretty fine.

Audio-Visual Crew

Stage Crew

First row—Peter Hirsh, Robert Beane.

Second row—Norman Weiler, Mr. Seifarth, Dick Yoder, Edward Houp.

Our stage crew is an ever ready, ever busy group in the school. Keeping stage and auditorium equipment in order and attending to the lighting and sound during assemblies and plays are a few of the duties they carry out.

They are always on hand for play rehearsals to adjust props and go over cues with the cast. Mr. Seifarth. their sponsor, keeps them occupied with numerous jobs and all in all they prove to be an indespensible organization at Mount Penn.

About Our Mountaineers

Termed one of the best teams in the history of our school, the Mountaineers of 1950 ended a thrill packed season with a record of twenty wins and four losses. Every game found the boys in there fighting with the teamwork which makes for a really great team.

Let's take a brief trip back through the season and try to capture the exciting moments and record them in this book to help us remember in future years.

The season began with three practice games—Sinking Spring, Mohnton, and Wernersville, all taken by the Mounts with great ease. Our first league game was with Hamburg, a new-comer to the Central Division. This game set the team out on a five game winning spree, adding to their list of victims West Reading, Birdsboro, Boyertown, and Muhlenberg. Remember that Muhlenberg game? That was the night Mike set a new individual scoring record for the school by racking up 27 points.

This brings us up to the Christmas vacation. Did I say vacation—what about the Alumni game? This was our first taste of defeat. The game was nip and tuck all the way, but in the waning minutes the alumni fought with all their might and pulled ahead to a 45-43 victory.

During our first week back at school the team faced two real tests. The first was the home game with Kutztown, county champions, of the 48-49 season. The team went onto the floor minus the services of Jim Babb, who was sidelined with an ankle injury. Babby, you remember had chalked up 84 points in four games and was leading the league scorers. As it turned out, we had nothing to fear. Al capably stepped into Jim's shoes, and the Mountaineers romped to a 53-35 victory before a jam-packed house. This put Mt. Penn in a tie for first place with Wilson.

On Friday night we traveled to Wilson, and found our first league defeat in store. The Prexies' tricky court, plus a team definitely out to beat us, humbled the Mounts by a 55-50 score. The team must be commended for their spirit. They never once gave up, and, even in the last minutes of play, threatened to tie the score several times.

Not discouraged by one loss, the team snapped right back into the winning column the next week by emerging victorious over both Wyomissing and Shillington.

Meanwhile, much to our delight, Wilson traveled to Kutztown to be beaten by the Cougars. Now Wilson, Kutztown, and Mt. Penn were in a deadlock for first place at the end of the first half. It was decided that Wilson and Kutztown should battle it out on our floor, K-Town won the the game and we were scheduled to face them the following Thursday on the Northwest court.

The halls really rang. Remember how we would suddenly burst into a cheer as we walked through the halls. the snappy new songs composed just for that game, and how the rafters shook at the special pep meeting?

About Our Mountaineers

Even a bus strike couldn't keep the Mt. Penn rooters away from this game! The evening got off to a rousing start when the J. V.'s won their sweet revenge by coming up from behind and defeating the Baby Cougars, first half champs, and previously unbeaten.

Then the varsity came on the floor. Their tricky passing, careful shooting, and excellent teamwork made it impossible for Kutztown to stop them and they ran up a 40-30 victory.

For the next four games, including one with Mohnton, Western Division champs, the boys proved they were championship material, overpowering West Reading, Birdsboro, Mohnton and Muhlenberg .

Then came that fateful trip to Kutztown. The Cougars were set to avenge their two previous defeats, and once they got started there was no stopping them! We came home that night on the short end of a 67-34 count.

After that, the boys got back on the winning list again, and we watched them chalk up victories over Wilson, Wyomissing, Shillington, and Hamburg.

That Shillington game! Our last home game, the last time the boys would play together on the home floor. Remember how we sat on the edge of our seats during that whole game watching the much improved speed boys give our team a real fight? We'll never forget Sy's set shot in the last minute—the shot that enabled us to squeeze by them 49-47!

Buddy finished the regular season in real style by coming through with 32 points at Hamburg, breaking Mike's record set earlier in the year. This seemed to be a year for setting records. Not only two individual scoring records, but also the entire first string, Mike, Buddy, Babby, Jim, and Sy, all scored well over 100 points apiece, a very unusual feat.

Now we had to get ready for the big game with Kutztown, the second half champs. This game was to decide who was to receive the league championship. Again we put our brains to work—composing songs, writing cheers, and making signs. That big sign we hung in back of our cheering section left little to the imagination — WE WERE FROM MT. PENN!!

How can we forget that sinking feeling, as Kutztown pulled farther and farther ahead! But anyone who saw the game will remember that although losing by a considerable margin the team never stopped fighting until the last gun sounded.

Congratulations are in order for both Mr. Zimmerman and the entire squad. It took a truly excellent team to beat them, and although they have no banners to prove their success, the example they set in team and spirit will long be remembered by all who saw them play, and especially us, their classmates. They taught us the true meaning of "Sportsmanship . . . the will to win, the way to lose."

First row—Jack Ennis, Wess Yeager, Jack Ziegler, Dicn Seiz, Donald Leinbach, Albert Aron.

Although the Junior Varsity Basketball team took no championships, and won no titles, they played a first class brand of basketball.

In the first half of league competition they won all their games except the home game with Kutztown. They lost this game by only two points, and the game gave them the runner up spot in the first half standing.

Mount Penn and Kutztown's Varsity teams ended in a deadlock for the first half of league competition. In a play-off game, on the Northwest Junior High court, the two J. V. teams met in a non-titular preliminary game. The Mount Penn team won by a decisive score. This game did give the team a moral victory, and proved that they still had the ability to win the second half, and perhaps even the county crown.

They started off the second half at full stride, but due to injuries to many of the regulars, they lost a few close games. When there was no mathematical possibility of the team winning the second half Coach Bierley moved up some ninth and tenth grade players to the Varsity team.

The prime purpose of Junior Varsity basketball is to build players for future Varsity teams. The ability that these young boys showed in the games in which they participated, gives us the promise of many good basketball teams in the near future.

Junior High Basketball

Kneeling—Peter Hersh, John Campfield, Bill Lountzis, Bruce Young.

Standing—Gene Yoder, Ellis Edmonds, David Fehr, Mr. Sharidan, Phil Jacobs, Larrie Mervine, Mike Masal.

Baseball Team

First row—Dick Seiz, Duane Goldman, Bob Weller, Delbert Shurr, Calvin Englehart, Mike Hawk, Al Schlegel, Jim Babb, Jim Bachman, Tom Mc Glinn.

Second row—Mr. Purnell (coach), Bruce Young, Dick Gechter, Russ Hart, Edgar Miller, Ronald Pisano, William Lloyd, Floyd Glase, Peter Hirst, Thomas Stults (manager).

The baseball team this year showed plenty of ability and an abundance of good players. The team was in all ways "on the ball". Their coach Mr. Purnell gave them a great deal of helpful advice which improved their game tremendously.

The first game of the season with Shillington put them on a down hill start when they lost 8-2 but they came back fighting to beat West Reading 8-5, Wilson 10-1, Wyomissing 6-1, Shillington again 8-4 and another repeat win over Wilson 6-4.

Their spirit of cooperation and good sportsmanship carried them through a very successful season.

Soccer Team

First row—Robert McMullen, Tom McGlinn, Dick Seiz, Mike Hawk, Harold Boone, Delbert Shurr, Calvin Englehart.

Second row—Mr. Zimmerman, Alan Schlegel, Jim Bachman, Donald DeTemple, Bruce McLean, Fred Klink, Mr. Bierly.

Third row—Albert Aron, Sanford Youngerman, Thomas Stults, (manager), Jules Levine, Russell Hart.

The Mt. Penn soccer team finished an excellent season with a league record of five wins and three losses, plus two ties. This gave them the Central Division Title. Sparked by many hold-overs from last year and a new group of players, the team came through with a victorious and very successful season.

Both the boys and the coaches should be commended for their ability in winning the Central Division Title and therefore bringing Mt. another trophy.

First row—Russ Hart, Wess Yeager, Paul Jones, Edgar Miller, George Mack, Lowrie Mervine.

Second row—Mr. Wearne (coach), Leonard Griesmer, Paul Hartline, Ronald Ziegler, Alan Gibstein, Robert Wool, Tony DiBlase (manager).

The Mount Penn High School thin clads made an impressive showing in all the meets in which they participated. Although there was a lack of material, there was a great interest and many good individual showings were made.

Coach Wearne's advice and tips were of great value to the boys and they showed great improvements due to his skillful coaching.

Girls Athletic Association

First row—June Homan, Martha Roberts, Mary Jo Roberts, Rose Heim, Emmy Lou Post, Barbara Schlegel.

Second row—Patty Jo Johnston, Joan McGrath, Sarah Aicher, Mrs. Linderman, Terry Jacobs, Barbara Hafer, Mary Ann Nein.

Among the new organizations at Mount Penn we have the Girls' Athletic Association. The purpose of this group is to promote the athletic activities, health and sportsmanship, among the girls in our high school.

The officers elected for this year were: Mary Jo Roberts, president; Rose Heim, vice president; and June Homan, secretary-treasurer.

This year was spent mainly in the organizing of the group, and they have high hopes of making it a big success.

Girls Varsity Basketball

First row—June Homan, Mary Lou Folk, Joan McGrath, Louise Hauer, Pat Griffin, Barbara Schlegel, Marlene Zeigler.

Second row—Gloria Weaver, Ann Fasic, Mary Jo Roberts (manager), Mrs. Linderman, Claire Yeager, Sylvia McCoy.

Third row—Barbara Hibshman, Joan Hartline, June Faber, Martha Roberts.

This year the girls' varsity basketball team closed their season in third place. Although not always victorious, the girls, sparked by the assistance of their captain, Louise Hauer, and their coach, Mrs. Linderman, never lost hope and kept up their fine enthusiasm and sportsmanship.

Considering the loss of many of last year's players, the girls put up some fine opposition for the other teams in the league.

Those girls lost through graduation are: Louise Hauer, Joan Hartline, and Gloria Weaver.

We think that Mt. Penn can look for a strong team next year with the younger girls that are now playing. We wish them the best of luck in the coming year.

Third row—Sylvia McCoy, Barbara Schlegel, Martha Roberts, Mary Jo Roberts, Emmy Lou Post, Clair Yeager.

The girls' hockey team, operating for the second consecutive year in the sports history of Mount Penn, started in the latter half of the season, to give quite a favorable impression.

Encouraged by their captain, Marvine Shaffer, and their coach, Mrs. Linderman, the girls were not discouraged by their defeats, and never gave up trying to hold their opponents down to a low score. The improvement of the team was shown when they upset the Mohnton champs in an exhibition game, 2-0.

The girls who played their last season for Mt. Penn are: Marvine Shaffer, Ginny Homan, Janice Reifsnyder, Mary Jo Roberts, Shirley Steinmetz, Corvita Pachuilo, Gloria Weaver, and Louise Hauer..

These girls are really to be congratulated for their untiring efforts and good sportsmanship. We are all looking forward to the coming season when we hope to see many more victories and a very prosperous team.

Second row—Marline Ziegler, Ann Sherman, Sylvia Mc Coy, Emmy Lou Post, Patty Jo Johnston, Mrs. Linderman, Gloria Youse, June Homan, Clair Yeager, June Faber, Ann Fasic.

Giving the best performances of any of the other girls' varsity sports, the girls' volleyball team closed their nearly triumphant season in second place, with only two losses. They managed to tie the league standings by defeating Wyomissing in the first of two games. In the second one. which was to decide the championship team, they were defeated by one heartbreaking point.

The girls once again had as their captain, Ginny Homan, who was always there encouraging them to victory.

We all feel proud of these girls for their undying efforts and good sportsmanship, and hope to have a fully victorious season next year.

Those girls lost through graduation are: Ginny Homan, Marvine Shaffer, Mary Jo Roberts, Esther Peterson, Joan Hartline, Doris Johnson, Rose Heim, and Shirley Steinmetz.

Jr. Varsity Squad—(bottom row)—Ann Sherman, Clair Yeager, Nancy Yoder, Mary Lou Klink, Patty Jo Johnston.

Our cheerleaders, this year took their job seriously and did more than just root for the home team. They were ambassadors of good will and carried out our plan for better fellowship.

Both teams are to be commended for their excellent sportsmanship and cooperation that they gave in the past season.
